

Workshop Schedule in Salzburg, January 12 and 13

For further information on our guests see: <http://irtis.fss.muni.cz/people>

Thursday (January 12)

4-6 pm: First workshop (presented by Hana Machackova and David Smahel)

Quantitative methodology: Experiences from online surveys with users of health related websites.

- Online-surveys, tasks and problems, strategies to ask people

Input by Philip, concerning online-sampling & self-selected samples (qualitative and quantitative) (10 minutes)

Friday (January 13)

9-10:00 am: Second workshop, part 1 (presented by Martina Cernikova and David Smahel)

Qualitative methodology: Experiences from EU Kids Online III and a study concerning patterns of eating behavior of adolescents and children

- Qualitative and quantitative: cross-cultural research (aspects, tasks, problems)
- Strategies of analysis – Thematic analysis
- Input concerning group-discussion by Cornelia & Jasmin (20 minutes)

Coffee break: 10:00-10:30 am

10:30-12:30: Second workshop, part 2 (chaired by Ingrid Paus-Hasebrink)

Qualitative methodology: Experiences from a qualitative long-term-study on the role of media in socialisation of socially disadvantaged adolescents and families (maybe connected with eating problems)

- How to handle the material
- Strategies of documentation
- Data analysis over 12 years
- Ethical tasks concerning socially disadvantaged children

Lunch: 12:30-2pm

2-3:30: Third workshop (presented by Lenka Dedkova and David Smahel)

Research in cooperation with companies: Experiences from research in cooperation with worldwide IT companies (experimental methods).

- How to raise online-security
- Working together with companies: Misunderstandings and challenges; aims of academia and industry

Input concerning experiences with political decision makers by Stefan (10 minutes)

Break: 3:30-4pm

4pm-5pm: Fourth workshop (chaired by Sascha Trültzsch-Wijnen)

- Input by Andreas, concerning sampling of twitter-users (20 minutes)
- Input by Mihael, concerning guide-line/in-depth/expert interviews to understand reputation of the Catholic Church (20 minutes)

5pm-6pm: Future research perspectives – discussion and wrap-up (chaired by David Smahel and Ingrid Paus-Hasebrink)

- Input by David and Ingrid, discussion about ideas for the future research: what is needed from theoretical perspective, practical perspective and policy making perspective (40 minutes)
- Wrap-up (20 minutes)